

M.S. in Pharmaceutical Sciences

Description

The M.S. in pharmaceutical sciences can be completed with an emphasis in environmental toxicology, industrial pharmacy, medicinal chemistry, pharmaceuticals, pharmacology, pharmacognosy, or pharmacy administration.

Minimum Total Credit Hours: 30

Course Requirements

Requirements for each emphasis area are given in the respective program description sections. Each emphasis area requires students to complete a minimum of 24 semester hours of course work and 6 hours of thesis.

Specializations

School of Pharmacy

Biomolecular Sciences

- Emphasis - Environmental Toxicology

Pharmaceutics & Drug Delivery

- Emphasis - Industrial Pharmacy

Biomolecular Sciences

- Emphasis - Medicinal Chemistry

Pharmaceutics & Drug Delivery

- Emphasis - Pharmaceutics

Biomolecular Sciences

- Emphasis - Pharmacognosy
- Emphasis - Pharmacology

Pharmacy Administration

- Emphasis - Pharmacy Administration

