

Econ 418: Sports Economics Economics

The use of sporting environments and sports data to explore and test selected topics in microeconomic theory: arbitrage and valuation, wage determination, crime, pricing and welfare in varying market structures, and strategic interactions of individuals and firms.

Prerequisites

• Econ 398: Intermediate Microeconomics (Minimum grade: C)

• Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)

• Lecture: Lecture for Econ 418

Subject Areas

• Applied Economics

Related Areas

- Development Economics and International Development
- Econometrics and Quantitative Economics
- Economics, General
- Economics, Other
- International Economics

