

Art 381: Beginning Imaging Arts Art & Art History

Students learn photographic fundamentals and camera techniques applied to basic black-and-white photography. The course emphasizes developing concepts, processes, and techniques of black-and-white film photography, including camera operation, exposure, darkroom procedures, lighting. Camera is required.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned HoursPre-Requisite Art 201 OR Art 202

Instruction Type(s)

• Studio: Studio for Art 381

Course Fee(s) Art Supplies (CRH)

• $60.00 per 1 Semester Credit Hours

Subject Areas

• Photography

Related Areas

- Cinematography and Film/Video Production
- Documentary Production
- Film/Cinema/Video Studies

