

Pol 702: Seminar in Judicial Politics Political Science

Problems in constitutional law; theories of judicial activism versus restraint; legal and political philosophies of Supreme Court justices; methods of judicial rationalization; judicial elitism.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

• Seminar: Seminar for Pol 702

Subject Areas

- Political Science and Government, General
- American Government and Politics (United States)

Related Areas

- Canadian Government and Politics
- Political Science and Government, Other

