

Accy 422: Accountancy Honors Professional Research

Patterson School of Accountancy

Students participate in case development and an in-depth case exhibition. The case exhibition serves as the oral defense of the student's practicum work. Cases will deal with current events, economics, the accounting profession, financial reporting, judgment, and analytics. The case exhibition develops presentation and communication skills. Accounting professionals serve as the audience and provide questions to each group during a Q&A debrief.
