

CEL 310: Community Engaged Leadership Capstone

University Studies

Students who successfully complete the Introduction to Community Engaged Leadership (CEL) course are eligible to enroll in the 3-hour Community Engaged Leadership Capstone course. In this course, students will undertake a project in partnership with an off-campus organization. The project should build the capacity of the community partner site while also advancing learning and skill development for the student. Completing the Community Engaged Leadership Capstone course is a requirement for earning the Community Engaged Leadership minor at the University of Mississippi.
