

CSD 682: Professional Issues: Seminar II

Communication Sciences & Disorders

This seminar provides in-depth discussion concerning current topics about entry into the profession of speech-language pathology and will include topics such as clinical settings and practices, professional organizations, professional ethical conduct and responsibility, advocacy, and other current issues. 1 Credit

Prerequisites

• Prerequisite: Admission to the CSD Graduate Program or Instructor Approval.

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for CSD 682
- Lecture: Web-based Lecture for CSD 682

Subject Areas

Audiology/Audiologist and Speech-Language Pathology/Pathologist

Related Areas

- Audiology/Audiologist
- Communication Disorders Sciences and Services, Other
- Communication Sciences and Disorders, General
- Speech-Language Pathology/Pathologist

