The Department of Higher Education within the School of Education and the School of Law are pleased to offer a concurrent degree option for those students who desire training in Law and Higher Education / Student Personnel. By allowing students to meet requirements for two degrees simultaneously, students are able to earn the M.A. in Higher Education / Student Personnel with an Emphasis in Higher Education Law AND the J.D. degrees in a shorter length of time than would be the case if each degree were pursued separately. In general, certain courses are used in partial satisfaction of the requirements for both degrees. The program is designed for students who contemplate careers in law or public service and wish to acquire a common body of knowledge in Higher Education and/or Student Affairs (with an Emphasis in Higher Education Law).

Fees:

Students enrolled in the concurrent degree program will pay UM Law School fees.

Curriculum:

Prospective students should consult with the School of Law and the Department of Higher Education within the School of Education for current details regarding the required curriculum for each program.

Applicaton:

Applicants to the concurrent program need to complete an LSAC law school application; a separate application must be submitted for the M.A. program. M.A. application requirements can be found on the UM Department of Higher Education M.A. Website. Applications to the concurrent degree program must meet the admission requirements of each school, including standard admissions tests and prerequisites.
