

Mgmt 380: Topics in Management Abroad

Management

The study of management topics across national and cultural boundaries. Students examine the nature and framework of international management while studying abroad. May be repeated with permission from the department chair.

Must be in good academic standing during the semester abroad. Must get academic approval from the dean's office and management department chair prior to going abroad.

1 - 6 Credits

Prerequisites

- Prerequisite: Must get academic approval from management department chair and the dean's office prior to going abroad.
- Pre-Requirement: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Study Abroad Lecture for Mgmt 380

Subject Areas

- Business Administration and Management, General

Related Areas

- Business/Managerial Operations, Other
- Logistics, Materials, and Supply Chain Management
- Operations Management and Supervision
- Project Management

