

Edci 353: Planning & Teaching Strategies for Effective Teacher Education

Introduction to teaching strategies and models including direct instruction, discovery and inquiry, cooperative/collaborative learning, concept teaching in a developmental-constructivist context; attention to taxonomies for cognitive, affective, and psychomotor domains; reflection of classroom practices; curriculum design and planning; classroom management; evaluation and assessment; use of technology across the curriculum.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Edci 352: Education, Society, & the K-12 Learner (Minimum grade: C)
- Enrollment restricted to Teacher Education
- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture/Lab: Lecture/Lab for Edci 353
- Lecture/Lab: Study Abroad for Edci 353
- Lecture/Lab: Compressed Video for Edci 353

Course Fee(s)

Curriculum & Instruction 3

- $65.00

Subject Areas

- Curriculum and Instruction
- Teacher Education and Professional Development, Specific Levels and Methods, Other

