

Arab 451: Applied Translation in Arabic

Modern Languages

The course will focus on developing advanced proficiency in Arabic through the translation of authentic political materials. Emphasis will be placed on understanding the socio-political context of the materials and fostering cultural competence in handling sensitive topics, while developing overarching competencies in properly translating sensitive materials for consumption in the Intelligence Community (IC).

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours
- Prerequisite: Arab 312 OR instructor approval

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Arab 451

Subject Areas

- Arabic Language and Literature

