

B.A.Ed. in Health and Physical Education

Description

The Bachelor of Arts in Education (B.A.Ed.) in health and physical education prepares candidates for careers as licensed physical education teachers with an endorsement in comprehensive school health for children and youth in public and private schools (kindergarten through grade 12).

The curriculum will focus on preparing educators who have a solid foundation in health and physical education both in and outside of the classroom.

Candidates will participate in fundamental fieldwork in both health and physical education, enabling them to have essential interaction with public school children in a variety of grades and settings.

(See an adviser for more information.)
