

Econ 550: Contract Theory

Economics

This course covers the theory of contracts, with an emphasis on the role of imperfect information, strategic behavior, and difficulties associated with incomplete contracts when economic actors try to reach mutually beneficial trade agreements.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Econ 398: Intermediate Microeconomics

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Econ 550

Subject Areas

- Economics, General

Related Areas

- Applied Economics
- Development Economics and International Development
- Econometrics and Quantitative Economics
- Economics, Other
- International Economics

