

PPL 378: Geographies of Conservatism

Public Policy Leadership

This course is a comparative analysis of 20th-century conservative political thinkers focusing on the preservation of traditional societies. It analyzes the place-specific institutional frameworks and policies that shaped the diffusion of modernity from the point of view of its opponents.

Instruction Type(s)

• Lecture: Lecture for PPL 378

Subject Areas

• Geographic Information Science and Cartography

Related Areas

Geography

questions about the accreditation.

The University of Mississippi is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award certificates and baccalaureate, master's, specialist,