

PPL 495: State Government Policy Process

Public Policy Leadership

State Government Policy Process is both an academic and participation-driven course that is tied to internship in a state capital. By connecting a student's internship effort with the modern-day policymaking process, it is designed to provide students with a better understanding of the state policymaking process and help train them to become working policy professionals in the public, private, or nonprofit sector.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- PPL 101: Foundations of Public Policy Leadership

Instruction Type(s)

- Pract/Intern: Practicum/Internship for PPL 495

Subject Areas

- Public Policy Analysis, General

Related Areas

- Education Policy Analysis

