

Anth 306: Archaeology of the Ancient Celts

Sociology & Anthropology

This course introduces students to the archaeological and anthropological study of ancient Celtic populations living in Central and Western Europe from 1000 B.C. to A.D. 500 and examines their cultural impact on the western world.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Anth 306

Subject Areas

- Anthropology
- Archeology

