ES 338: Motor Learning and Control
Health, Exercise Sci & Recreation Mgmt

The study and analysis of motor learning and control with emphasis on sensory, perceptual, and muscular components of human movement.

3 Credits

Prerequisites
• Bisc 206: Human Anatomy and Physiology I (Minimum grade: C)
• Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)
• Lecture/Lab: Lecture/Lab for ES 338

Subject Areas
• Health and Physical Education, General
• Kinesiology and Exercise Science

Related Areas
• Health and Physical Education/Fitness, Other