

Emphasis - Community Health (Resident)

- M.P.H. in Public Health
- Concentration - Community Health
- Emphasis - Community Health \(Resident\)

M.P.H. in Public Health Minimum Total Credit Hours: 42 Course Requirements MPH Program - 42 credit hours Public Health Core (15 hours)

- PH 505 - Health Program Planning (3 hours)
- PH 528 - Public Health Policy (3 hours)
- Jour/IMC 585 - Health Communication (3 hours)
- PH 610 - Biostatistics for Public Health Practice (3 hours)
- PH 646 - Epidemiology (3 hours)

Public Health Practicum (6 hours)

- PH 698 - Public Health Practicum (1-6 hours)

Electives (3-12 hours)

- PH 600 - Foundations of Public Health (3 hours)
- Required in the first semester for students without an undergraduate degree in public health
- PH 515 - Motivational Interviewing (3 hours)
- PH 595 - Human Health and Illness (3 hours)
- PH 620 - Emerging Issues in Public Health (3 hours)
- PH 665 - Special Topics in Health Behavior (3 hours)
- Other courses across campus in areas of interest

Concentrations (9-18 hours)

Students will select one concentration in community health or epidemiology or a combined community health and epidemiology concentration which would require 9 credits from each of epidemiology and community health.

Community Health Concentration (9 hours)

- PH 555: Health Equity (3 hours)
- PH 635: Theories in Health (3 hours)
- PH 685: Health Program Evaluation (3 hours)

Epidemiology Concentration (9 hours)

- PH 670: Applied Epidemiology (3 hours)
- PH 674: Chronic Disease Epidemiology (3 hours)
- PH 680: Infectious Disease Epidemiology (3 hours)

Other Academic Requirements

Integrative Learning Experience (ILE)

In the last semester of their degree, students will complete a comprehensive exam to satisfy the CEPH requirement for an integrative learning experience (ILE).

Concentration - Community Health Description

The concentration in community health, which consists of 9 of the total 42 MPH credit hours, places special emphasis on the application of public health theory and science to the planning, administration, and evaluation of community health programs.

Course Requirements

Community Health Concentration (9 hours)

- PH 555 - Health Equity (3 hours)
- PH 635 - Theories in Health (3 hours)
- PH 685 - Health Program Evaluation (3 hours)

Emphasis - Community Health (Resident)

