SAS 605: Eligibility, PTD and Certification

School of Applied Sciences

The course examines the development of the initial eligibility and progress-toward-degree rules, best practices in eligibility certification processes, and related NCAA infractions cases. Unique scenarios, including international student-athletes, student-athletes pursuing dual degrees, etc., will also be explored to prepare students for these situations in the workforce. Students will practice conducting initial eligibility evaluations and determining NCAA certification standards for continuing student-athletes.
