Emphasis - Human Resource Management

B.B.A. in Management

Description
Managers lead organizations by motivating, coordinating, and planning in order to achieve organizational goals. The management major integrates theory with application to help students become the socially adept, critical thinker that public and private organizations seek to lead for successful outcomes. Management graduates have a broad-based business education that will help them achieve career success, including financial management, logistics, information systems, operations, business strategy, economics and statistics, as well as a narrower focus on management topics such as leadership, organizational behavior, human resource management, and negotiation.

Minimum Total Credit Hours: 120

Emphasis - Human Resource Management

Description
Successful organizations treat people as their most important asset and the effective management of human resources as central to their business strategy. In the HR management emphasis, students learn how to manage and maximize the potential of the people who work in organizations. By knowing HR practices as a business function, graduates understand how people act in a professional environment, adapt to the organization's changing needs, and advance their career.

Course Requirements
For the emphasis in human resource management, a student must complete 9 hours of coursework selected from Mgmt 484, Mgmt 485, Mgmt 494, Mgmt 495, Mgmt 527, Mgmt 581, Mgmt 583, or Mgmt 585.
