
A course for practicing educators to enable them to make a critical investigation of their implementation of educational technologies in the past and present, and plan for the future in a rapidly changing technological world.

3 Credits

Prerequisites
- Students must be competent in the basic uses of technology as presented in the most recent Edse 557.

Instruction Type(s)
- Seminar: Seminar for Edse 757

Subject Areas
- Teacher Education, Multiple Levels
- Curriculum and Instruction