Econ 583: Labor Relations

Economics

An advanced course analyzing the evolution and impact of labor law in the United States. The growth of unions, the Railway Labor Act, the Norris-LaGuardia Act, and Fair Employment Law are emphasized using the case approach.

3 Credits

Prerequisites
• Mgmt 581: Collective Bargaining
• Senior standing required.

Cross-listed Courses
• Mgmt 583: Labor Relations

Instruction Type(s)
• Lecture: Lecture for Econ 583

Subject Areas
• Applied Economics
• Labor Studies