Anth 306: Archaeology of the Ancient Celts
Sociology & Anthropology
This course introduces students to the archaeological and anthropological study of ancient Celtic populations living in Central and Western Europe from 1000 B.C. to A.D. 500 and examines their cultural impact on the western world.
3 Credits
Prerequisites
- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours
Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture: Lecture for Anth 306
Subject Areas
- Anthropology
- Archaeology