Anth 365: Economic Anthropology

Sociology & Anthropology

This course seeks a critical engagement with the cultural dynamics of late capitalism. Studying economic production from a comparative perspective, this course centrally examines the topics of gifts, debt, credit, money, and value.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Anth 365

Subject Areas

- Anthropology

Related Areas

- Physical and Biological Anthropology