Anth 365: Economic Anthropology
Sociology & Anthropology
This course seeks a critical engagement with the cultural dynamics of late capitalism. Studying economic production from a comparative perspective, this course centrally examines the topics of gifts, debt, credit, money, and value.
3 Credits
Prerequisites
- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours
Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture: Lecture for Anth 365
Subject Areas
- Anthropology
Related Areas
- Physical and Biological Anthropology