Anth 413: Public Archaeology: Theory and Method

This course provides theoretical and practical experience in public archaeology in the United States. Topics covered include the history and implementation of legislation affecting cultural resources, and a variety of field and lab methods used by current practitioners.

4 Credits

Prerequisites
- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours

Instruction Type(s)
- Lecture/Lab: Lecture/Lab for Anth 413

Course Fee(s)
- Sociology 1: $20.00

Subject Areas
- Anthropology

Related Areas
- Physical and Biological Anthropology