Anth 413: Public Archaeology: Theory and Method

Anthropology

This course provides theoretical and practical experience in public archaeology in the United States. Topics covered include the history and implementation of legislation affecting cultural resources, and a variety of field and lab methods used by current practitioners.

4 Credits

Instruction Type(s)
• Lecture/Lab: Lecture/Lab for Anth 413

Course Fee(s)
Sociology 1
• $20.00

Subject Areas
• Anthropology

Related Areas
• Physical and Biological Anthropology