US 101: Pre-College Seminar

This course may be used to accept high school work from students who successfully complete the Advanced Placement (AP) Seminar course, which encourages multidisciplinary investigation into complex academic and real-world issues. This course will be used as general elective credit unless the student’s academic dean approves its use to fulfill a degree requirement.

3 Credits

Subject Areas
- Multi-/Interdisciplinary Studies, General