CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION (EDS)

Description

The Ed.S. degree provides students with educational development beyond the master's level. Graduates may pursue this degree to obtain additional credentials or as a step while deciding whether to work for a doctoral degree. Specialist's degree candidates address national board standards with special emphasis on lifelong learning and development of leadership skills.

Minimum Total Credit Hours: 30

Specializations

- Emphasis - Education Specialist in C & I

Emphasis - Education Specialist in C & I

Course Requirements

The Ed.S. degree requires 30 semester hours of coursework beyond the master's level. Required courses (27 hours) and an elective (3 hours) include:

Code	Title	Hours
EDCI 6020	Curriculum Construction	3
EDCI 6099	Advanced Methods	3
EDCI 6180	Effective Tech Integration in the Clsrm	3
EDCI 6350	Reflective Teaching	3
EDCI 6510	Advanced Individual Study	1-6
EDCI 6900	Seminar in Education	3
EDCI 7300	Foundations of Research	3
EDCI 7320	Action Research	3
EDUC 6920	Current Trends & Issues in Diversity Edu	3
Electives course - selected with approval of adviser

Other Academic Requirements

Specialist's candidates must complete a minimum of 65 hours of approved field experiences and submit a scholarly paper to a refereed journal.