THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES MINOR

Course Requirements

A minor in international studies consists of 18 hours, including POLS 1020 Introduction to Comparative Politics or INST 1010 Introduction to International Studies and 15 hours of 3000-level (or higher) course work selected from Inst-designated courses. Students switching from the international studies major to the minor may substitute up to two of the required 3000-level courses with INST 2000-level courses.

Other Academic Requirements

Students must demonstrate competency in a modern language other than English by completing 3 hours of 300-level course work in a modern language with a minimum grade of C. A minimum grade of C is required in all course work to be counted toward the international studies minor.
